PrairieLand Park
Ag Centre, Saskatoon

CATTLE HANDLING ■ 9:00 a.m. APRIL 30, 2011

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND:

Internationally Renowned Cattleman Curt Pate

In collaboration with the National Cattlemen's Beef Association, Curt Pate presents effective stockmanship clinics across the United States. The Montana-based stockmanship expert's live demonstrations of low stress cattle handling have been overwhelmingly successful across North America and abroad.

His demonstrations in collaboration with FACS in 2009 and 2010 were called impressive, and praised for being practical and beneficial. Curt brings value to the cattle industry.

HORSE HANDLING ■ 1:00 p.m. APRIL 30, 2011

PRESENTING NEW EXPERTISE:

Dwight Dokken Accomplished
Horse Trainer

Southern Saskatchewan's Dwight Dokken shares his valuable experience from 30 plus years of horse training and 15 years of riding pasture. Several years presenting clinics and competing in various rodeo events complete his impressive resume.

During his presentation for FACS, Dwight will demonstrate ways to approach your horse, gain its respect, put the right direction of flow in your horse, and offer tips on catching and loading your horse.
