The Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc. Introduces a New Board of Directors

The Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc. (FACS) is pleased to announce a new Board of Directors for 2002-2003:

- Dr. John Patience, Prairie Swine Centre, as newly elected Chair, representing the research sector
- Stuart Stone, Heartland Livestock, as the new Vice Chair, representing auction markets
- Helen Van der Loop, returning as the dairy industry representative
- Dr. Trish Dowling, returning from the Western College of Veterinary Medicine
- John Willmott, producer, as a director at large
- John King, producer, replacing Keith Turpie, to represent the equine ranching industry
- Stan Fehr, producer, returning to represent the poultry industry
- Dave Walter, producer, returning as the pork industry representative
- Dr. Murray Woodbury, Western College of Veterinary Medicine, returning to represent the diversified livestock industry
- Shannon Meyers, Elanco Animal Health, newly elected to represent the pharmaceutical industry
- Kevin Volmer, as the new representative for the beef industry

“The FACS Board of Directors is the driving force behind our organization” says Adele Buettner, Executive Director of FACS. “We ensure the directors represent all main aspects of the animal agriculture industry, to ensure all opinions are fairly represented.”

The Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc. (FACS) is a membership-based, non-profit organization that represents the livestock industry in advancing responsible welfare, care and handling practices in agriculture. FACS endeavors to raise producer awareness of the economic and ethical benefits of animal welfare and help consumers achieve a greater understanding of animal care issues.
