

Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc.

AWARDS OF DISTINCTION for EQUINE WELFARE Announced for Saskatchewan

For Immediate Release

Tuesday August 2, 2005

The Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc. (FACS) together with Saskatchewan Horse Federation (SHF) are pleased to launch "Awards of Distinction for Equine Welfare." This program, designed to recognize excellence in equine animal care, is the first such partnership of its kind in Saskatchewan.

"The Saskatchewan Horse Federation are founding members of the Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc., and we are pleased to partner with them in offering four unique animal care Awards," states Mae Smith, Executive Director of the Saskatchewan Horse Federation.

FACS and the SHF seek to honour individuals, organizations and companies who:

- Develop a new process, product or source of knowledge that has made a significant impact on the improvement of the welfare of horses in Saskatchewan.
- Integrate animal welfare into their core business strategy and set their own bars higher for expectations regarding animal welfare
- Take an active role in effectively conveying equine welfare issues and raising awareness of equine welfare with the general public and the agri-food industry.
- Recognize a young person between the ages of 13-25 who demonstrates through practices as a horse owner or interaction with others, the importance of a commitment to responsible equine care.

"Saskatchewan has a very strong equine industry comprised of owners/riders who take excellent care of their horses. Honoring leaders in the industry is one way to both recognize their ongoing efforts, and to encourage others in the industry to take the lead in animal care issues." states Adele Buettner, Executive Director of FACS.

The four Awards of Distinction are:

Equine Welfare Innovation – Award of Distinction

This award is to recognize a person or company who has developed a new process, product or source of knowledge that has made a significant impact on the improvement of the welfare of horses in Saskatchewan. The honouree will also be saluted for efforts to work collectively with the horse industry to share the innovation.

Equine Welfare Leadership – Award of Distinction

This award will recognize a person or syndicate or other equine business owner who integrates animal welfare into their core business strategy and has set their own bar higher for expectations regarding animal welfare. The honouree will demonstrate leadership and commitment in dealing with issues relevant to animal care. This individual or company leads by example. The Award will recognize an active horse owner.

Equine Welfare Communication – Award of Distinction

This Award recognizes a person, organization or company who has taken an active role in effectively conveying equine welfare issues and raising awareness of equine welfare with the general public and the agri-food industry. The objectives of factual and honest information will result in an increase of trust and credibility for the industry and business of equines.

Equine Welfare Steward of the Future – Award of Distinction

This honour is to recognize a young person between the ages of 13 and 25 who has shown, through practices as a horse owner or interaction with others, the importance of a commitment to responsible equine care.

More information including a nomination form can be found on the FACS website at www.facs.sk.ca or the Saskatchewan Horse Federation website at www.saskhorse.ca.

-30-

For more information, please contact:

Adele Buettner, Executive Director
FACS
306.249.3227
Saskatoon, SK

Mae Smith, Executive Director
SHF
306.780.9244
Regina, SK